

KAUA'I PA'INA

Photos by Amanda C. Gregg

MRS. CLAUS' ISLAND SCHOOL FUNDRAISER

Delia Valentin put on a one-woman show as Doris Claus in Mrs. Claus in Menopause, which attracted audiences to several showings at Island School last month. The 80-minute monologue, written by Kathleen DaHill, was peppered with songs, vigor and humor, with Mrs. Claus learning to take some needed time for herself.

The show was a benefit for Kaua'i Hospice and Island School.

Brenda Biehler, Marly Madayag and Edna Holdman

Charlotte Lidell and Steve Low

Linda Farr and Donna Bielby

Siri Shabad and Michael Shootz

David and Poppy Shell

John Frazier and Morgan Liddell

Mahealani Oana

Bonnie and Peggy Lake

Cherie and Jasmine Bright

showings at Island School last month. The 80-minute monologue, written by Kathleen DaHill, was peppered with songs, vigor and humor, with Mrs. Claus learning to take some needed time for herself.

The show was a benefit for Kaua'i Hospice and Island School.

Brenda Biehler, Marly Madayag and Edna Holdman

Charlotte Lidell and Steve Low

Linda Farr and Donna Bielby

Siri Shabad and Michael Shootz

David and Poppy Shell

John Frazier and Morgan Liddell

Mahealani Oana

Bonnie and Peggy Lake

Cherie and Jasmine Bright

Kathleen DaHill and Delia Valentin

Debra Blachowiak, Karla Anderson and Nancy Golden

Pat Hillemonds and Sandy Malish

Lucia Valentin and Jennie Yukimura